Partnership Desk

Do you need a partner or assistance putting a team together? Come to our Partnership Desk. Unit 354 can proudly proclaim we have assembled a great team to assist you. The Partnership chair Anne Marie Harrington and her experienced volunteers will do their best to fit your needs. We service all strats for all events. You will need to fill out a partnership card with some basic information such as your name, number of masterpoints, bidding system preference, and a number at which you may be reached. Remember, telephone numbers should be how to reach you at the tourney, not your home number. We cannot always guarantee a good "fit" for a partner, but we do guarantee we'll try our very best.

Registration Desk

Players, be sure to visit the Registration Desk as soon as possible. Registering entitles you to a welcome packet including a convention card holder and this year's version of our traditional and popular Kokopelli decal. Also, you can find information there on local restaurants, upcoming sectionals and regionals. The registration desk is open one hour before each session.

Your registration card will be used for door prize drawings. You don't have to be present to win, but make sure you claim your prize at the Registration Desk by the end of the tournament. Winners will be drawn daily beginning Tuesday.

Fish Bowl Drawing: Be sure to try your luck at guessing the number of cards in the fish bowl to win a daily prize basket.

Some Websites You Might Like

By Vic Quiros

Scottsdale, Arizona

So you're really trying to improve your game, and wondering if there are websites that might have some useful stuff. Here are three of my favorites:

acbl.org: Don't overlook this one; the ACBL site has lots of useful stuff including a convention card editor, learning materials, tournament info, and much more. If you aren't a member, you should consider joining; it's only $29.00 for the first year.

bridgebase.com (also known as BBO): It's a free service that allows you to:

- * Play casually online, by yourself or with your partner.

- * Set up a bidding table where you and your partner can practice bidding methods.

- * Watch (kibitz) World Championship matches and many others.

- * Play online tournaments.

bridgewinners.com: This is a great site, and it's also free. Some of its highlights:

- * A terrific convention card editor that's powerful and easy to use.

- * Bridge forums and blogs that are visited by many of the top players.

- * A way to pre-reregister for tournaments and avoid long lines.

Pete Benjamin's Day

Yesterday was Peter Benjamin's lucky day! He won the Fish Bowl Basket for guessing the correct number of cards in the Fish Bowl. He also went over 10,000 masterpoints and achieved Grand Life Master status.

Peter, now of Culver City, Calif., joined the ACBL while living in Phoenix, he made Life Master in Phoenix and won the Silver Ribbon Pairs at the 1995 Phoenix Fall NABC. It is only fitting that with his 88 points he has won this week, he became a Grand Life Master in Phoenix. He won two Bracket I Knockouts here playing with teammates Jean Barry, Becky Rogers and John Grantham. Congratulations, Peter!
