I/N Corner Tip #5

Finesse or Anti-Finesse?

By Vic Quiros

Scottsdale, Arizona

How often have you pondered how to play a particular suit, either in a suit contract or in NT? Here are a couple of simple examples. Assume you're playing a notrump contract, and that you have adequate entries to your hand and the dummy to play as you wish.

You are South and dummy is North.

Dummy

♠Qxx

You

♠Axx

Lead low from your hand toward the ♠Q, a simple finesse. You're hoping the ♠K is in the West hand; if it is you'll score a second spade trick, now or later. You might cash the ♠A first, but you usually don't want to relinquish total control of the suit. Leading the ♠Q from dummy is what I call the "anti-finesse." You'll almost never win a second trick in spades because East will cover the ♠Q with the ♠K if she has it.

Dummy

♠QJ10

You

♠Axx

Here the situation is quite different. You can always win two tricks in the suit by force, giving the opponents a trick with the ♠K. But if East has the ♠K you can capture it and score three tricks in the suit by leading the ♠Q from dummy.

If you have questions, please send an email to vquiros1@cox.net
