Hi all. First, I want to thank everyone that played last night for their patience and good humor. Dan ran into the "perfect storm" of challenges.

Because of the lack of data due to some of the Bridgemates not recording the data, and the lack of hand records from some pairs, we are deleting the game, it won't count. I know, everyone thinks that they had the perfect game and came in FIRST. But you didn't, I did! :)

The good news, everyone that played last night gets a free, no charge, game next Wednesday evening.

Sorry for having to "delete" the game but hope to see everyone next Wednesday! Ashley Erwin, President, Unit 159
