

As many of you know, Ashok is moving to Dallas shortly. One of his last days at the club will be Sunday. Barbara and Paul are planning a little repast in recognition for all of his contributions to the club.

Ashok has been a generous supporter of the Unit and he will be missed. Come join in Sunday and wish him a successful transition and move.

Hope to see you all soon at the table, Ashley Erwin, President, Unit
159